The band played at Emma Square last night.

The Kamehameha School for girls will open today.

Mystic Lodge No. 2 K. of P., will meet this evening.

Capt. Peter Lee of the Volcano House is still in town.

There was only one passenger for the Volcano yesterday.

Mr. J. T. Waterhouse, who has been quite ill, is improving.

The band plays at Kamehameha Schools this afternoon.

The W. H. Dimond arrived yesterday from San Francisco.

The special session of the Legislature has not been called yet.

Read Ehlers & Co's address to the Xmas presents buying public.

British Vice Consul Walker was present at the conspiracy trial to-day.

The American League will meet on Friday night. Several speakers will address the meeting.

The members of the Central Union Church are balloting for a pastor. Political methods in religious matters!

Thirteen miles of the extension of the Oahu railroad have been graded. The laying of the rails will begin shortly.

There will be no meeting of the Board of Health this afternoon. The president is busy in the conspiracy case.

The consolidation of the two telephone companies will take place on the 1st of next month. Mr. Cassidy will have charge of the concern.

James McInerney, who fractured his leg a short while ago, will probably be removed to his home next week. He is at present at the residence of Mr. M. Davis at Waikiki.

The evidence of the prosecution in the conspiracy case will probably be all in this afternoon. It is doubtful if any defense will be offered in the District Court.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Cummins have issued invitations to the wedding of their ward Elizabeth Kahalelaka Baker to Charles Wallace Booth which will take place at Allendale Home, Pawaa, on Dec. 31, 1894 at 8 o'clock p.m.

According to the Advertiser, an application for the position as superintendent of the Government Electric Light Works has been filed by Fred Waterhouse. Didn't Captain Pratt get the appointment!

The boys from the Kamehameha School, marched this morning to the resting place of Mrs. Pauahi Bishop, and deposited floral decorations on the coffin of the founder of the school. The band headed the procession.

Kauai is matrimonial inclined at present. A certain prominent gentleman has engaged himself to make a second matrimonial venture and a bride leaves for the Garden Island to go into partnership for better and worse with a popular and a handsome medical man.

Getting There.

The following telegram has reached Hiroshima from Field-Marshal Count Yamagata: "During the engagement which took place in the neighborhood of Chu-lien-cheng, 1 officer and 32 men were killed, while 3 officers and 103 men were wounded. Although the total loss on the side of the Chinese is not yet known, 459 dead bodies have been already buried by the Japanese."

The same telegram adds that up to the present, 74 field pieces, 4 machine guns, 4395 rifles, 37,384 shot and shell, 4,300,660 cartridges, 1,470 koku of polished rice, and 245 koku and 5 to of uncleaned rice had fallen into the hands of the Japanese.

It is ordered that Friday the 18th day of January, A. D. 1895, at 10 o'clock a. m. be and hereby is appointed for hearing said Petition, in the Court Room of this Court, at Honolulu, at which time and place all persons concerned may appear and show cause, if any they have, why said Petition should not be granted.

Dated Honolulu, Dec. 8th, A. D. 1894.

By the Court,

GEORGE LUCAS,

Clerk.

LOCAL NOTES

Sans Souci Forever.

No place in the islands can compare with that idyllic spot on the beach of Waikiki known as Sans Souci. The moon shines brighter, the breeze is cooler, and the rippling waters whisper sweeter songs to the visitor than anywhere else in the world. And is it a wonder that the human heart beats more rapidly under such circumstances in the bosom of any man who finds himself alone with the choice of his soul. A marriage license and parson are all that is wanted to complete the scene, and it is rumored that these "implements" recently have been in use in a very quiet manner in this favorite spot of the pale and chaste Queen of the night. Congratulations.

A NEW BOAT.

The Leilani Boat Club held a meeting last evening at the Hotel. Arrangements were made for the purchase of a boat and an order will be forwarded to Australia in the steamer due here to-morrow. Look out Healanis!

A Card.

Mr. and Mrs. Kaulukou take pleasure in announcing that the marriage between their daughter Miss Priscilla Kahianaakala Kaulukou and Mr. Noble Noah Kauhane will be solemnized in St. Andrew's Cathedral on Monday, December 24th at 10 a. m. Friends of the parents and of the contracting parties are cordially invited to be present at the ceremony.

A Runaway.

The owner of hack No 25 had a sad experience today. His horse got tired of remaining on the I. X. L. stand where he belongs and took a rather wild excursion without driver. The horse turned at full speed down Nuuanu street, jumped with the hack over two wheelbarrows standing out side Wing Wo Tai's store and knocked them both into kindling wood. He thereafter dodged a dray and a furniture wagon turned the corner of Queen street, and was finally stopped near Morgan's auction room. Fortunately no injury was done to anybody and only the hack was damaged.

The British Army.

Since the last returns for 1894, says a London paper, when the effective strength of the British Army of all arms stood at 27,279, they have been increased materially by large accessions to the ranks from all parts of the United Kingdom, especially the great recruiting depots in England—London, Kingston-on-Thames, Hounslow, for the metropolis, and various others in England, Scotland, and Wales. Altogether some 50,000 men have been added to the ranks to meet the losses by retirement into the reserve and other causes. The unusual application to fill vacancies is, the continuous difficulty of finding adequate employment in overstocked trades, and other causes not far to seek. The distribution at the last return showed 1,316 sabres of Household Cavalry, 18,388 of the line, 3,781 Horse Artillery, 14,308 Field Artillery, 1,293 Mountain Artillery, and 7,312 Garrison Artillery. The brigade of Foot Guards, with whom London, and latterly Dublin, are familiar make up with their eight battalions over 6,000; the Royal Engineers, 7,439; Infantry of the Line, 140,000; Colonial Corps, 5,000; Army Service Corps, 3,600; Ordnance Store Corps, 900; Corps of Armourers, 350; and Medical Staff Corps, 2,600. November of last year produced the greatest influx to the ranks during the last ten years. England and Wales claims 72,600, Scotland near 4,000, and Ireland, 28,000; Colonies and Egypt, 37,000; and India, 75,000.

LADIES' COLUMN.

We want to help you out on your Christmas purchases, and intend to do it by saving you money on every purchase made of us during the Holidays. We have no end of useful things, that are in every day demand, that would lose none of their value by being given as Christmas Presents.

We might give away a piano or something else as an inducement to purchasers, but instead of that everything will be marked so low, that every purchaser receives a benefit instead of its all going to one person.

We will have a couple of counters in the store devoted to Special Bargains that are Special Bargains in the fullest sense of the word. You could not find a greater variety in a Grab Bag.

We have received many new goods by the "Oceanic" that call for special notice, all of them go at our reduced prices. PURSES, SILKS, CURTAINS, UMBRELLAS, SATINS, COTTONS, LINENS, and no end of goods will be sold at prices that will make bargain hunters happy, and be most acceptable as Christmas Presents.

Remember we are open nights, have new electric lights in the store, so that goods can be examined as well as in the day time.

Save all your checks for the Volcano trip, and send them to the store before 12 o'clock Dec. 26th, when a Round Trip Ticket will be issued to the one having the largest number of Sales Tickets.

HIRES ROOT BEER

NERVOUS. ARE YOU? Can't sleep, can't eat, tired, thirsty? It's a tonic you want. HIRES ROOT BEER purifies the blood, tickles the palate. WHAT'S THE DIFFERENCE? You drink HIRES ROOT BEER for pleasure and get a tonic. You take it as a tonic and get pleasure. C. E. HIRES, PHILADELPHIA

Suppose Niagara's end less stream— It might be so arranged By magic queer, to HIRES ROOT BEER. Could suddenly be changed. Think what a mecca it would be For pilgrims, day and night. To stand and drink upon the brink Its nectareous elixir.

Good all the time. It removes the languor of morning, sustains the energies at noon, lifts the weariness of night—HIRES ROOT BEER—delicious, sparkling, appetizing. Good as luxury, good as a tonic. It is beyond all dispute a wonderful health-giving drink, and it is very easy for any one to understand why this is so. The root, herbs, barks and berries, from which HIRES ROOT BEER is skillfully made, are the identical things from which physicians get their most helpful remedies. For instance: Do you believe that sarsaparilla is a valuable remedy? Well HIRES ROOT BEER contains more sarsaparilla than many sarsaparillas. The same is true as to other ingredients. It is doing more to advance practical temperance than many people realize. It is used and recommended by the most cautious and conservative temperance people. The most scrupulous abstainer can enjoy HIRES ROOT BEER without, and recommend it to others as an agreeable and healthful substitute for the strong drink which he opposes. It is a home-made and homelike beverage. It is very easily prepared, and if the plain directions are followed, it will always be good. Every member of the family, from the baby to the grandfather, can enjoy HIRES ROOT BEER, and every one of them will have better health for each swallow they take. It improves the appetite, purifies the blood, and tones the whole system. Children especially delight in HIRES ROOT BEER. Its preparation interests them, and its use does them good. In thousands of homes, "HIRES ROOT BEER that mother made," will be among the happiest recollections of childhood. BEWARE! Do not confound it with other Rootbeer preparations, as it is entirely unlike anything else of the kind. Beware of extracts advertised for making Rootbeer, as they are composed chiefly of coloring matter and oils to give them flavor, which excite the nerves and cause nausea. HIRES Improved Rootbeer packages makes really the most harmless of our fashionable drinks, yet nourishing and strengthening the blood. It cleanses the system of the poisonous humors that develop in kidney and urinary diseases, and in fact, in any case that arises from an impure state of the blood. HIRES Improved Rootbeer is offered to the public with full confidence of its merits. It contains no poisonous or injurious properties whatever, and an infant may take it with perfect safety.
